- To give brief about the Indian tax structure.

Brief write up about the Programme:

Guest talk on Business taxation was organized by Commerce and Management the resource person Dr. Sathisha H K explained the tax structure that constituted direct (income tax) and indirect taxes. He elaborated upon the application and benefits. He highlighted differences between the previous and new tax systems of India and suggestions with reference to direct tax were also proposed by him. He stressed upon more use of direct tax as compared to indirect tax.

He compared the tax system of different countries and highlighted the various measures which other countries were adopting. He quoted the words of Albert Einstein "... complicated income tax is the hardest thing in the world to understand...." through which he explained the complexity of Indian income tax structure. It was a very interactive session which was supported by practical examples given by the resource person.

Learning outcomes:

- Students learnt the difference in taxation system.
- They got updated about the history of the Indian taxation.
