Resource Person: Mrs. Pallabi Gosh, Founder/director, Impact and Dialogue Foundation

Brief write up on the Program

On 19th July, a guest talk was organized on the topic "The Tragic Reality of Human Trafficking" at NCMS Auditorium.

The talk began with an overview of human trafficking, emphasizing its global nature and widespread impact. The speaker highlighted that human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery involving the exploitation of men, women, and children for various purposes, such as forced labor, sexual exploitation, forced marriage, and organ trafficking. Shockingly, it was revealed that millions of people, including both victims and committers, are involved in this illegal trade. The main determination of this talk was to raise awareness about the distressing issue of human trafficking, shed light on its various aspects, and discuss ways to fight this heinous crime.

Learning Objectives

- Definition, Scope and Types of Human Trafficking
- Medical and Psychiatric Health of Victims
- What to Do if You Suspect HT
- Demographics of Victims and Traffickers
- Recognizing the signs
